The Condensed Super-Fast Dakini Practice from the Yuthok Nyingthik

The sadhana practice for accomplishing each of the five Dakinis [in Yuthok's] retinue [i.e. the four cardinal direction Dakinis plus the central Dakini consort]¹ individually or specifically is as follows:

Start by generating Bodhicitta or the mind which aspires towards Enlightenment for the sake of all beings through the practice of the 'Four Immeasurables' then imagine that you are Hayagriva and Vajravarahi in union and that the Guru Yuthok is above the crown of your head [visualize him in yab yum or union with his consort as well]. The white Buddha-family Dakini is inside the conch-like mansion of your skull [i.e. inside your head, in your head chakra]. The red Lotus-family Dakini is in your throat chakra, the blue Vajra-family Dakini is in your heart-center or chakra, [the yellow Jewel-family Dakini is in your navel chakra], and the dark green Karma-family Dakini is in the 'secret place' or genital chakra. Imagine that all these Dakinis are holding crescent chopping blades [in their right hands] and skull-cups brimming with blood or blissful nectar [in their left hands] and that they are positioned in a dancing pose with their right legs bent and their left legs outstretched.

¹ While the text speaks of Guru Yuthok's 'four-fold retinue' or 'circle' of Dakinis, in this practice Yuthok is also in union with the central Buddha family Dakini, and so there are five Dakinis in total, who correspond to the practitioner's five chakras.

White, red, dark blue, [yellow], and dark green light radiates outwards from each of the respective Dakinis. [Infinite offering dakini emanations in the form of this light] offer countless pleasing offerings to all the Buddhas of Enlightened Body, Speech-Energy, Mind, Qualities, and Activities. All of these Buddhas' collective empowering blessings condense back in and dissolve into you. Imagine that the white light and Dakini pacify or cure all sicknesses and demonic provocations; that the yellow light and Dakini increase life-span and merit; that the red light and Dakini control all beings and phenomena in the three realms or worlds, bringing them under your sway or influence; that the dark blue-black light and Dakini utterly annihilate all enemies, gek or obstructing spiritual influences, and conceptual misunderstandings or wrong views [about reality etc.]; and that the green light and Dakini accomplish whatever activities you wish to accomplish. Imagine that there is a corresponding seed-syllable in each of the four Dakinis' heart-centers [OM, AH, HUM, TRAM, HRI] with [appropriately coloured] light [radiating from it].

IN HEART CHAKRA OF WHITE BUDDHA DAKINI IN YOUR HEAD:

White OM seed-syllable

IN HEART CHAKRA OF RED PADMA DAKINI IN YOUR THROAT CHAKRA:

Red AH seed-syllable

IN HEART CHAKRA OF BLUE VAJRA DAKINI IN YOUR HEART CHAKRA:

Blue HUM seed-syllable

IN HEART CHAKRA OF YELLOW RATNA DAKINI IN YOUR NAVEL CHAKRA:

Yellow TRAM seed-syllable

IN HEART CHAKRA OF GREEN KARMA DAKINI IN YOUR GENITAL CHAKRA:

Green HRI seed-syllable

Recite the mantra [as many times as you can]:

OM AH BENDZA/[VAJRA] GURU HARI NISA TSITTA HRING HRING SARVA SIDDHI HUM

Your body is filled with heat and bliss, your voice, your speech-energy, is empowered, and exceptional realization arises in your mind.

[When you are ready to end the practice, dissolve the Dakinis into their seed-syllables and into emptiness in your chakras, dissolve the Guru and Consort into your heart and then dissolve your yidam form back into emptiness. Recite the mantra of interdependence three times, dedicate the merit etc.]

[If you do this], the [actualizing of] the four tantric activities will be unobstructed, all Dakinis will gather like clouds, and you will without a doubt obtain both the ordinary and extraordinary siddhis or spiritual accomplishments in this very lifetime. When not practicing this meditation, make tsok offerings and offer tormas diligently. Abide by the general and sadhana-specific samaya or tantric commitments. Keep your damaru drum, tantric bell, kangling human-thigh bone trumpet. kapala or human skull-cup, khatvanga trident, and melong or ritual mirror with you at all times. Direct your focus or meditative concentration to each of the Dakinis individually to accomplish whatever specific type of activity you desire, radiate out their light rays and then condense them back in again.

This is the sadhana practice for accomplishing the four Dakinis individually. It is very condensed and extremely profound. Keep it secret from unfit vessels [i.e. from those not ready for the tantric teachings].
